Subject: Current Status and Next Steps Re: Treaty 8 Agricultural Benefits Claim

MEMORANDUM

This briefing note follows up from the previous note dated September 5, 2018, and provides a summary of the current status and next steps respecting the settlement process.

Current Status

On October 2, 2018, Canada confirmed that the LRRCN Agricultural Benefits Settlement Agreement has been approved by Treasury Board.

Presently, the Crown is working with Central Agencies to obtain the approvals and funding necessary to complete the settlement process.

The only technical steps remaining are the passing of the Order-in-Council to approve the Settlement, which is essentially a formality, and payment of compensation.

Next Steps

It is expected that compensation will be paid to LRRCN by the first quarter of 2019.

Concluding Remarks

We trust that the information above has been of assistance, and we will continue to provide regular updates until compensation is paid to LRRCN. Please don't hesitate to contact us should you have any further questions in the interim.

Regards,

MAURICE LAW
